Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Discourse Delivered Before the Rhode-Island Historical Society, on January 18th, 1848: On the Character and Writings of Chief Justice Durfee Gentlemen of The Historical Society: This return of our anniversary, comes attended with circumstances, which awaken in our bosoms, the conflicting emotions of exultation and sorrow. With its recurrence, the elate feelings of patriotic pride with which we here listened to the last annual discourse, again spring into being, with all their kindling and elevating influences. But with these feelings, comes the painful reflection, that he who contributed so much to the glory of that occasion, is no more among us; that the voice which then so delighted and instructed us, is hushed in the silent grave. The events of that celebration may well form an era in the history of this Society, and of the State. By an effort, most felicitous and powerful, the orator of that day so successfully wrought all our past history - facts and principles - that little seems left to those who may follow him in the same...
