CLOVER HARTZ SEELIC.-- you are a funny little woman! The Pickwickian Senate, having confirmed the nomination of Dr. Julian Walter Brandeis to the Supreme Bench of this Magazine (thus showing excellent judgment and practical proof of their belief in the w. k. Darwinian theory of progression), thereupon turned their attention to the more difficult and important task of securing a new chauffeur for this Pilicr de Plaisanterie. What they sought was a man of keen intelligence. of scintillating wit. a clever satirist. epigrammatician. vers librettist. philosopher. poet, and word-juggler; but alas! careful search disclosed that all such paragons were either extinct or held regular jobs. and in desperation they offered the job to us and we fell for it. We is used advisedly in the popular rather than the editorial sense, and indicates that the Column is to be written by contributors...
