However, a Word or two of each may not be amiss. 1. As to the Stoicks notwithstanding their Advantage of other Sects, they were not without their Mistakes. for Instance; They believ d a Plurality of Gods, that the Soul was a part of the Deity, and that their wise Man might dispose of himself, and make his Life as short as he pleas d. These, with some other less material Errors, I have marked in the Margin. Tis true, tis objected against the Stoicks that they allowed no Degrees in ill Practice, but made all Faults equal; that they held Compassion an Infirmary, and would not suffer it in the Character of an improv d Philosopher; that the Happiness of a Wise Man depended purely upon himself, and that there was no Necessity of addressing a Superiour Being.
