Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Method of Increasing the Quantity of Circulating-Money: Upon a New and Solid Principle The Principle of this Proposal is to put a new and great Capital into circulation, by Loans of Money, to be created in the manner and upon the foundation described in the following Letter, addressed to a Member of the late Secret Committee of the House of Commons on Bank Affairs. The gentleman, to whom the Letter was addressed, (whose name, if I thought myself at liberty to mention it, would add much authority to the whole proposal, ) being himself struck with the novelty of the measure, and its apparent tendency to public utility, has been the means of procuring a considerable degree of favour to it elsewhere. But, if I were to say more of this, it could only be with a view to obtain attention, - not to influence the public judgment, which alone can decide in this case, as in all others where public credit is concerned.
