Looking Lonely in the Face entails descriptive circumstances throughout my life that led me on the road to loneliness. It reveals my many struggles, inner conflicts, and disappointments, while unmasking, shame, denial, and embarrassment that countless people face today, which prevents them from reaching out for much needed help. It explains my ascendancy over pain to victory, meticulously outlining the way of escape from spiritual death, depression, and hopelessness. I provide a solid spiritual solution to resolve the antagonizing issue that one may face concerning loneliness. There are in fact two ways to die: There is the inevitable PHYSICAL DEATH that eventually will meet us at an unexpected, undesired time and place. Each of us must face the inescapable reality of dying that causes us to lose our natural earthly senses that connects us to what we see, hear, feel and breathe. But how little we know about the other way: SPIRITUAL DEATH, a soul that has no life. Until we take that instinctive last breath, though alive physically we re already dead on the inside -trapped, decaying within our own bodies, plagued by loneliness and functioning only as a result of our internal inclination, riddled spiritually with all sorts of dire ailments. We ve lost all spiritual senses that connect our hearts to God, hope, faith, and love.
