It was like. . . He pressed his body against mine and his explorations grew more intense. I felt his hot breath tickle at the thin skin behind my ear before his lips closed together and kissed me there. . . . like Id lost someone that made me feel something amazing. Something real. . . and then I found her all over again. And now, here you are. With me. --- Katherine Atwater was about to start her new life, but instead shes headed back. Back home. Back to her cancer-stricken mother. Back to a lover who lied and tore her heart to pieces. Attorney Shane Logan is going the same way, on the same bus, and preparing to try the biggest case of his career. He didnt expect to find a woman like Kat on this trip. He never imagined hed be saving her life. After barely surviving...
