C. In October, 1903 The Papers which this volume contains embrace, with a single exception, those which were read at a recent Conference of the Bishops of the Church of England in the Western Hemisphere, and the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, held at Washington, D. C., in October, 1903. The subjects of which they treat, and the sequence in which they were read, will be indicated in the Order which, in this volume, follows this note. The value of the Papers will be estimated, of course, by such judgment as the reader may bring to them. But whatever that may be, of the value of the occasion there can be no doubt. Not infrequently, for well-nigh a century, had individual Bishops of the Anglican Communion honored the American Church, and especially its General Conventions, with their presence, and almost as often had Bishops from the United States enjoyed the hospitality of their Canadian Brethren. But in either case the visitor was only a guest, and the larger comity of two Sister Communions was, at the best, but very imperfectly recognized. At the Conference in Washington, Bishops of both nationalities (from first to last, nearly one hundred in number) sat as one body, and in absolute equality, and deliberated concerning the gravest interests and largest mission of the Kingdom of God among men. Such an assemblage had, as some at any rate who participated in it believed, a prophetic significance. It recognized the Oneness...
